Faculty Development Funding Applications - Reminder

COVID ALERT: The Critical Incident Policy Group (CIPG) has determined that all travel will be restricted except for mission critical/essential travel that has been approved by the appropriate VP.

The first 2020-21 deadline with chair and dean electronic approval is September 21.

- Faculty are encouraged to consider development opportunities beyond travel as travel may not be approved: virtual conferences/workshops/courses, software, new reading materials, equipment for teaching or research, etc.
- Complete and detailed application responses assist committee review and probability of full funding (within limit).
- Applications completing chair and dean electronic approval no later than September 21 will be considered in this cycle. Verify earlier department/college deadlines with your chair and dean.
- Funding decisions are relayed 1-2 weeks following the due date.

Read all instructions and guidelines/criteria/procedures prior to completing the Workday Workflow application form (TigerNet ID required, use Chrome browser).

RECOMMENDED - Track your application's electronic progress after submission by returning to Academic Affairs Workflows.

The next application due date will be November 2, 2020.

If you have questions or would like assistance accessing and/or completing the FDF form, contact me at jakohl2@fhsu.edu or by phone, 4207.

GSE Grant Application Now Open!

Graduate Scholarly Experience Grant applications are now being accepted!

The Graduate Scholarly Experience (GSE) Grant Program engages graduate students with meaningful scholarly/creative/research activities.

Fall semester applications must be submitted on or before 11:59 p.m. October 2, 2020

Fall and Spring semester awards can be used on expenses occurring anytime between July 1, 2020 and June 10, 2021.

All current Fort Hays State University graduate students are eligible to apply for grants up to $500. Approved projects may not receive the full amount of funding requested. More details will be provided in the award letter.

Applications may be used for either

- consumable supplies for proposed research/scholarly/creative work

OR

- to help defray costs for travel to present the results of such work or to conduct the research

*Please note that student travel expenses are not allowed this semester due to COVID. Awards may be used to defray costs associated with registration fees for relevant virtual conferences and meetings, and should be described as such. However, if the research/scholarly/creative activity absolutely requires travel (e.g., to collect data) please complete the Travel Justification on the Budget Form. Requests for travel will undergo additional review and may not be approved.

TILTed Tech Mini-Conference: Supporting Students in Unprecedented Times (Webinar)

Thursday, September 24 at 12:00-3:00pm

Zoom Webinar

Register: <http://bit.ly/TILTedSept24>

Moving home from college with less than a week's notice... losing a job due to a business's shutdown... learning content online that is normally delivered face-to-face... these challenges alone are enough to test a student's resilience. Facing them during an unprecedented pandemic can intensify feelings of loss, helplessness, and anxiety. During this mini-conference, learn strategies for supporting students, the process of emotional and psychological responses to crisis, and how to keep students on track with retention.

TILTed Tech is a series of mini-conferences to inspire teaching, technology and scholarship. The event series is a collaboration between Forsyth Library, Teaching Innovation and Learning Technologies, and Technology Services.

MDC Workshop – Leadercast Hays: Positive Disruption

MDC Virtual Event

Disturbance. Disorder. Disarrangement. Many people think these are negatives in the workplace, but Leadercast will show why disruption is the best way to make positive, lasting change in your organization and beyond.

By popular demand, Leadercast is returning virtually this October! Hear from some of the world's most influential leaders in this 3-week, combination live/on-demand event. Each week will feature three nationally known Leadercast speakers – including Magic Johnson, Amy Jo Martin, & Matt Wallaert. In addition, you will be able to dive into deeper discussion of the content with your peers in two virtual sessions, led by an experienced MDC facilitator.

For more info, visit <https://www.fhsu.edu/cob/mdc/leadercast-2020/index>.

As FHSU faculty and staff, your registration fee is complimentary, thanks to your FHSU Vice President. Limited funding is available annually per division. For those in Academic Affairs: your registration fees are complimentary for up to two workshops per year.

Registration can be completed online at <https://webapps.fhsu.edu/MDC2.0/Default.aspx> or by calling Hannah Hilker at (785) 628-4121.

First Round of Voter Registration Week

September 14-18th

Sponsored by the Department of Political Science and the Student Government Association, this week will be a week to register students, faculty and staff, as well as community members, hear the voices of students and faculty as to why it is important to register to vote, as well as important information on how to vote.

Swipe Out Hunger

Saturday, September 19th at 12:00-2:00pm

Cunningham Hall

SWIPE Out Hunger is a food packaging initiative that allows us to package and send over 30,000 meals to Haiti. This service is especially important this year because, as a result of the pandemic, Haiti is short over 7 million meals, meaning tens of thousands of people are currently starving. Please join the Center for Civic Leadership in this event to help alleviate the strain of hunger by signing up using this link: <https://forms.gle/tCzZk52xCQieWj7bA>

The event will be split into two shifts (12:00-1:00 and 1:00 to 2:00) and will be held in Cunningham hall on September 19th. It is a great way to get volunteer hours and help the global community.

In order to maintain personal safety at this event, please wear a mask and follow the social distancing guidelines.

International Day of Awareness of Food Loss and Waste

Monday, September 28th at 7:00-8:00pm

Via Zoom

Please join the CCL to learn about the global problem of food waste. Food waste happens at every step of the production line, and in the US alone over 133 billion pounds of food are wasted every year. This number is especially stark when considering the thousands of people who die every day from starvation. This event will address what you can do to limit your own food waste, and the impacts of continuing such high levels of food loss and waste. Click here to register:
